Getting the Right Job Brief

To ensure you get the right staff, we like to get the right brief. Our experienced recruiters will work closely with you in order to understand the complete details surrounding the vacancy. This is a key ingredient to getting it right and ensures time frames are kept to a minimum.

Sourcing Candidates

As well as our existing extensive database of candidates, we advertise to source candidates in the market place via SEEK, Indeed, The Advertiser and other advertising mediums deemed appropriate for the vacancy. Some roles may require additional print/on-line advertising and this will be determined when taking the initial brief.

Rigorous Recruitment & Selection Process

Our interview process involves a lengthy telephone screen, one-on-one interview, skills testing and reference checking.

Keeping in Touch

During and beyond the recruitment process we will be in regular contact with you. This service does not cease after the placement of a candidate. We maintain regular contact with our clients and placed candidates throughout our three month guarantee period. This also applies to temporary/contractor placements.

Looking for Temporary Staff?

There will be times when your business requires an additional pair of hands, or two! In2view Recruitment has an extensive database of candidates available for temporary work, whether your requirement is short or long term. With the right job brief, our experienced consultants will ensure your temporary staffing needs are promptly met.

Hourly rates for temporary staff vary, depending on job requirements. Contact one of our consultants on (08) 8338 0189 to find out more about our competitive rates.
